Summary

I am an aspiring front-end software developer who enjoys finding problems that need solving. I have strong technical skills and an academic background in web development, graphic design, and computer science. My passion lies in creating user-friendly, aesthetically pleasing, relevant web applications. I will have completed the certificate course I'm taking in August 2023. I'm hoping to find full-time roles in front-end and full-stack software development or UX/UI Design. I have several years of experience in customer service, drawing skills, proficiency in Microsoft Office and Google Suite, and am skilled in Adobe Creative Suite. I speak Spanish natively and I am proficient in French. I have done lots of volunteer work in gardens, at the East Bay SPCA, around my neighborhood, at non-profits such as Shark Stewards (graphic design for social media posts advocating for sharks and their habitat), and The Prisoners' Literature Project (reading letters from inmates requesting books, assembling the requested books and packaging them). I have taken courses in Computer-Automated Design (CAD), Fashion Design, Graphic Design, and 2D animation. I have a lot of unique, niche skills and a strong passion for learning and gaining more.
